Dear all,

Further to the GA last week and Henks report regarding the next CFE Professional Affairs conference in November, we kindly ask you to block

Thursday, 19th November, 14 to 18 hrs, (Haus der Steuerberater, Grafenberger Allee 98, 40237 Düsseldorf) in your agenda. The list of speakers will most likely be completed next week when you will receive the detailed programme.

This 3rd European global conference on Tax Advisers Professional Affairs will deal with the issue of the tax adviser in a changing environment. "The relationship in the changing environment- does it drive the tax adviser and his client apart"? will be discussed with representatives from various member states from the tax authorities, business and tax advisers. A further aspect is the meaning of the codes of conduct of the tax adviser profession in this respect. Professor Pestke, CEO, DStV, has confirmed his participation as speaker in this respect.

We kindly ask you to inform the respective professionals in your organization about the event and to encourage as many as possible to attend.

Many thanks for your support.

Kind regards
